By Her Excellency
Margaret Wood Hassan, Governor

A Proclamation

REMEMBRANCE DAY
SEPTEMBER 11, 2016

WHEREAS, Citizens across the state and nation honor and remember those who lost their lives on September 11, 2001; and

WHEREAS, We will continue to offer support to the families who lost loved ones in the devastating events of September 11, 2001; and

WHEREAS, We commend the firefighters, police, and first responders who courageously risked their lives to rescue those in need. We also commend the ordinary citizens and volunteers who selflessly dedicated their time and talents to recovery efforts; and

WHEREAS, The events of September 11, 2001, profoundly affected us all, showing our nation's resilience in the face of tragedy, unifying us, and strengthening our resolve; and

WHEREAS, Today we remember the lives that were lost, honor the heroic actions taken by our first responders, and thank the members of our military for their continued service and sacrifice;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARGARET WOOD HASSAN, GOVERNOR of the State of New Hampshire, do hereby proclaim SEPTEMBER 11, 2016, as REMEMBRANCE DAY in New Hampshire, and call on all residents to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and remembrance services.

Given this 11th day of September, in the year of Our Lord two thousand and sixteen, and the independence of the United States of America, two hundred and forty-one.

Margaret Wood Hassan
Governor
